To Whom It May Concern,

IT support is an essential component in our business; if the system crashes we are in trouble. We have had a variety of unexpected critical issues arise. On each crisis moment we contacted Command IT Services for an immediate remedy. Command IT Services has extensive experience to solve any Network & IT aspect within an organisation.

Pilbara Real Estate endorses Command IT for all Network and IT solutions. They maintain our systems and upgrade components where necessary.

We recommend Command IT to any organisation seeking IT & IS solutions.
